Rules and Regulations

1. A complete set of the official rules and regulations for this race can be seen at Pet Allies' website www.petalliesaz.org/duck.
2. The White Mountain Rubber Duck Pluck is produced by Pet Allies, the "Producer", a charitable organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, whose mission is to stop pet over-population through non-lethal means.
3. A minimum of 5,000 ducks will be entered in the pluck. Chances of winning depend on the total number of qualified entries.
4. All ducks entered are and shall remain property of White Mountain Rubber Duck Pluck. Once the ducks are released, they are on their own. No attempt to free or interfere with any duck is permitted, unless deemed necessary by the pluck committee.
5. The White Mountain Rubber Duck Pluck will take place on July 4, 2020 at 2 PM at the Pet Allies shelter, 1321 N 16th Street.

The animals at the shelter need you now more than ever. Be their hero. Adopt a duck. Thank you.

HOW IT WORKS

When and Where?
Saturday, July 4th 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.
Pet Allies Shelter
1321 N. 16th Street, Show Low
(928) 532-1602

What?
5,000 rubber ducks will be placed in a simulated pond. A trained scout dog will enter the pond on a leash and ‘pluck a duck’ from the pond. There will be cash prizes, vendors, games, animals for adoption and more!

How Do I Participate?
Adopt a duck for your chance to win. Ducks can be adopted the following ways:

- Mail in the attached Duck Adoption Form using the envelope.
- Visit www.petalliesaz.org/duck to adopt a duck online.
- Visit us at our duck adoption locations: our current shelter (1181 E Thornton Road, Show Low) and clinic (4050 S White Mountain Road, Show Low).

Cash, check, and credit cards accepted.
